LAND, STOCK AND CROP

Ed. Clark of Little Rock, sold 28 head of 1250 lb. cattle to Boardman & Whaley, to be delivered in Oct. at $4.50.....S. R. Burris, of Little Rock, sold 50 125-lbs. hogs to be delivered Sept. 1, to Boardman & Whaley at $5.60—Mt. Sterling Advocate

Nicholasville Court.—The Lexington Herald Bureau reports court at Nicholasville Monday as follows: County court to day was well attended but little business was transacted and few sales are reported. J. B. Chambers makes the following report: 100 stock hogs were sold at 5 1/2 cts.; 9 two-year-old cattle at $22.75; 15 extra two-year-old steers at 27.00; 200 sheep at $6.00 per head; milch cows brought from $30.00 to $45.00. The horse market was dull, horses selling at Spears & Hare's sale for from $110 to $225.

Stock ewes seem to be in demand. Thomas McClintock & Sons sold 40 head to W. F. Heathman at $6 per head, and 35 head to Alfred Clay at $6.50 per head. The same firm sold to Tom Marshall a pair of six-year-old mare mules for $350. ....Nearly every bunch of export cattle in the county has been sold and by the close of the month will have found their way to Eastern Markets. This is also true of lambs, but few flocks remain in the hands of farmers. Hogs have taken upward tendency, with a corresponding advance in cured meats and lard. Thomas McClintock & Sons shipped last week three double deck loads of lambs and one car of fat hogs the latter costing 5 to 6 cents.—Bourbon News.

Mt. Sterling Court.—The Advocate says: A conservative estimate of the number of cattle on the market is 6,000 head. Every pen was full and a great many left in the country for want of room. Some traders would sell out their pens and then bring in more cattle some filling their pens three times during the day. Very few heavy weight steers on the market at September and October court days

FEMININE SNAP-SHOTS.

* A duck of a girl can make a goose out of any man.

A brother is a home-made mirror that never flatters.

A kiss by any other name would not rhyme with—bliss.

A girl who fishes with flattery knows a lot about—bait.

The world is the shop where we get our manners manicured.

A girl with a dimple somehow looks incapable of deception.

Instead of lecturing your husband, try loving him.

Popularity is largely a matter of getting the right press agent.

Alas and alas! but the pink of propriety too often get punched with the wall flowers.

The girl who smokes cigarettes isn't the one figures in a bachelor's pipe dreams—if he knows it.

The lamp of learning can't light up a cottage like the candle of contentment.

STRAVED OR STOLEN?—From my pasture five two-year old steers, two red, two white spotted and one roan all de-horned, a liberal reward will be paid for their return.
